of the shelter are interested in it," Mrs. Tooker said. Anyone is welcome to stop and see the shelter which was built at a cost of $3,500 with at least $1,000 being spent in furnishing and supplying it.

Stressing that she speaks only for herself, Mrs. Tooker said information is what is needed to get people interested in civil defense and a place to get their questions answered when they have questions.

Not many people know, she said, that questions concerning civil defense can be referred to the Area G Civil Defense office or that such pamphlets as "Fallout Protection — What to Know and Do About Nuclear Attack" can be obtained at post offices.

Torrance High's Annual Variety Show Scheduled

Torrance High School students will present their 15th annual variety show tomorrow night at 8 in the school auditorium.

Students appearing in the show were selected by a screening committee. Student written and directed, the show theme features at attempts of the cast to interest J. M. A. Moneybags in staging the show.

Linda Kraegel, a senior, wrote the script and Larry Kulp, also a senior, serves as student director. Assistant director is Ella Breshears, a junior.

George Knights, school band director, is faculty adviser for the production. Highlighted in the show are the Accidentals, student dance group, plus small student singing and dancing groups.

"Ulcers aren't caused by what you eat, but by what is eating you," Jack Hester, Charlestown (Ind.) Courier.

... Storm

water flooded a home at that location.

TREES WERE blown over at 625 Calle Miramar, 114 Buena Ventura, 5519 Rockview, and a number of large eucalyptus limbs were torn from trees in other parts of the city.

Repairs of streets, cleaning, and pumping of smaller sumps was started Tuesday as the storm subsided.

Large sumps were not affected by the storm, but some of the smaller ones were from one-half to three-quarters full, Street Superintendent Ralph Perkins reported.

THE STORM had its less troublesome aspects. It blanketed the Palos Verdes Peninsula with a white mantle of snow, it dumped hailstones the size of peas over the area on at least two occasions Monday, giving many youngsters their first experience with hail, and it cleared the Los Angeles basin to such a degree that area residents got an almost unprecedented view of the snow-covered San Gabriel Mountains.
